in video casting

Share your video content online

Dartfish.tv brings you more freedom and flexibility than ever before. Take advantage of this powerful new media platform to publish your video clips, advertise your business, improve your communication and earn extra revenues

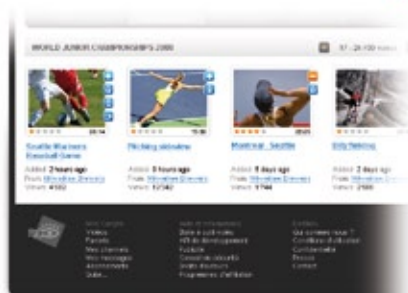

Share what moves you: create your own channel on

 www.dartfish.tv

Save time and gain efficiency

Your community is only a click away from your video analysis. Say farewell to needless copies, CD burning and emailing attachments. From now on your video content is accessible anytime, anywhere and is downloadable on demand.

Have power over your audience

Whether you need to comment one-to-one based on a performance or share an analysis with thousands of fans, you decide who sees what. Gather your contacts, have them subscribe to your channel and customize their access to your programs. Public, semi-public or private, it's up to you!

Keep ahead of the game

When you create your channel you can invite your audience to an unprecedented video experience. You share high value content, expand visibility and increase profit by monetizing some content and access. No matter what motivates you to broadcast online, you'll hit your target.

A fully integrated solution

All of your Dartfish video can be uploaded on www.dartfishmoves, the only Internet platform to share your tagged, clipped, indexed and illustrated videos. To top it all off, your content is available both online for immediate viewing or to download for later use.

The key to success: your premium channel

The right impression

Organize your videos by collections, categories, keywords and customize your interface to your organization's look and feel. As a result your viewers identify and browse easily through your programs.

Profits on the rise

The videos you are publishing show your unique expertise. Give the audience who values it the most privileged accesses. By subscribing to your channel they will bring you extra revenues.

A premium account fitted to your needs

To publish, edit and sell your content all you have to do is subscribe to a premium account. Whether you have five hours or 600 hours of video to share, there is a solution waiting for you.
